Why should I attend?

Students—

- ?? Earn extra credit from your teacher.
- ?? “Working Star” Career Presenters will share their success stories with you—you will choose three presenters to see
- ?? Discover the skills you need to succeed in 21st Century careers.

Parents—

- ?? Guest Speakers—Authors Sue Gubing & Karen McKenna “Games2Careers”
Achieving a career that will bring both personal and professional fulfillment can often be like solving a puzzle. You will discover how childhood interests are the secret to finding career success.
- ?? Guest Speaker—Scott Passeser
Creator and host of “Jobline,” a weekly LI business television broadcast on News since 1989 and the Director of Industrial Outreach, Stony Brook University, Economic Development.
- ?? Parent Door Prizes

 If you are interested in being a Career Presenter at Middle School Career Night, please contact Kelly Penwell at 471-1491 as soon as possible.

Rules of the Event—

1. Parent & Student attend Middle School Career Night together.
2. Students will see three career presenter sessions of their choice.
3. Only students with returned registration forms will be able to choose their career presenters.
4. Students can receive extra credit from their teacher.

Learn what it takes to have a successful career from our “Career Star” presenters at Middle School Career Night!
