

COMPUTER INFORMATION

COMPUTER INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TRACK For those who like data and technology.	Desktop Publishing  1/2 cr. Grades 10 – 12 #5250	Business and Personal Computer Applications 1/2 cr. Grades 10-12 #5050 (3 crs. from SUNY Farmingdale)	Applied Business Computer Applications: The Firm 1/2 cr. Grades 10 – 12 #5071
---	--	---	--

Education Level	Computer Apprentices	Typical Entry-Level Salaries
High School	Office assistant, clerk typists; word processor; desktop publishing assistant, data entry clerk, computer operator.	$7—$8 an hour; $14—$16,000.
2 yr. A.A.S. Degree	Administrative assistant, account clerk, Help Desk clerk, Information Technology Technician, School Computer Aide.	$9—$12 an hour; $18—$24,000.
4 yr. B.S. Degree	Account Executive; Office Manager; Information Technology Associate, graphic artist/website designer.	$13—$20 an hour; $26—$40,000.

What Do Apprentices Study in College?

- Office Technologies: Information Processing, Executive, Legal, Medical.
- Computer Information Technologies
- Business Administration; Management
- Accounting; Finance
- Insurance; Real Estate
- Banking; Retailing
- Computer Information Systems
- Actuarial Science
- Paralegal Studies
- Graphic Arts
- Hospitality, Travel and Tourism

These courses are good for non-business majors who wish to study: Engineering, science, health, math, communications, and government.